

Dave Lloyd - Dave is 'friends' with Docdebug. If you recall from our earlier conversations with him he said that Doc hosts his website in Mexico, (IP address indicates Mexico Ciudad De, registered in Chihuahua, Chih.) but he actually is in Florida. Doc is 6' 5" tall, 280 pounds and a huge redneck.

Dave said the reason everything is being posted about Youcevich and Lemcke is because the two cheated a friend of Doc's (Sam at dssripoffs.com - these guys do BellExpressVu!!!) out of $100,000.00. They claimed they had a hack for EchoStar, but he didn't have it.

Dave said that they are the same people who have the HU unlooper.

He said they also took Dave at insipid for $10,000 on a loader.

Dave still says the guy who is doing a lot of the engineering is the Jehovah Witness in Sarni, ON. Only knows his first name, Mark. Rumor is that he is highly sought after by Microsoft and they try and recruit him regularly.

Jim Waters is the Jim of the Barrie Group in Barrie, ON. He was the one who provided Maldonado the 'unlooper' as well as Ron Ereiser.

Dave Dawson is working out of Prince George, BC now. He is doing a lot of underground stuff and is still the money man, courier. Dave Lloyd says that Dawson is saying he has a Echo unlooper for $75,000. Nothing has been confirmed yet.

Dave said the Docdebug is posting the address of Youcevich and Lemcke's lab on his website within the next 24 hours. To show that he is in communication with Debug he sent me this email. I have contacted Brian with ExpressVu regarding the info.
