Subject: Guys, I want action

My direction is as follows:

Dish Network is to have TWO Key changes a day during the week, and one key change on Saturday. I want this done immediately.

I want a set-top box change from the service, that will kill these SOB's that are now going to lock their Tsops. You have many options here

I do NOT want the card patch released due to the security leak. We KNOW this was NOT ECHOSTAR since none of us even knew of this strategy.

We need 100% focus on this stuff. We have made great progress. We have destroyed the commercial aspect of stealing. We have made it clear this is NOT commercial and driven back to the hobbyist.

I don't want to let up. I want to hammer hammer and hammer these pricks. We had all the damn answers and cards to play on these guys. We should be ready to blow out their brains. I want focus PLEASE!!!
